

Call for Nominations for the Board of Directors of Mediation Services

Mediation Services is seeking nominations for volunteers for our Board of Directors for terms starting September 1, 2022. We are particularly interested in candidates bringing either of the following areas of expertise:

- Accounting or Finance professional: willing to volunteer on the Finance & Audit committee and support the Executive Director with budgeting and financial reporting
- Human Resources professional: willing to volunteer to volunteer on the Board Recruitment & Development committee
- Legal professional with background in criminal justice: willing to volunteer on our Board Governance committee
- Individuals with an interest in Restorative Justice
- Individuals willing to take on the role of Board Secretary

Individuals with other areas of expertise are encouraged to apply as well.

It is critical that Board Directors carry themselves in alignment with the organization's values: Caring, Collaborative, Empowering and Integrity. Board Directors must also actively support and lend their expertise towards the organization's purpose of facilitating peaceful interactions to transform relationships and vision of we are at the forefront of the conflict resolution movement.

Experience with or demonstrated understanding of Restorative Justice is a definite asset, along with prior experience serving on a Board of Directors and an understanding of the role of a Director.

Please email your expression of interest along with information supporting your candidacy to Jen Armstrong, Recruitment Lead at mediationserviceshr@gmail.com.

Mediation Services recognizes the importance of building an exemplary board that is inclusive and reflective of the population we serve. We encourage applicants to voluntarily self-declare if they are from any of the following employment equity groups: women, Indigenous peoples, visible minorities, and persons with disabilities.

Mediation Services is a local, non-profit organization that promotes peace and restorative justice within the community. We have been offering conflict resolution services to Manitobans since 1979, including victim-offender mediation, community mediation for family/neighborhood disputes, workplace intervention, and a comprehensive training program in conflict resolution skills.
